Additionally,thepoolofcommunicationresourcescanbedeepenedbyexpand with Jong Gil having coffee. A great universal poet they dub him, one who soars high above all the other geniuses of the world [...] But such is not the lot [...] of the writer who has made bold to summon forth [...] all the dreadful, appalling morass of trifles that mires our lives, all that lies deep inside the cold, fragmented, quotidian characters with which our earthly path swarms [...] [T] he false, unfeeling judgment of the time, which will brand as worthless and base the creations cherished by him, will assign him an ignoble corner in the ranks of those writers who offend humanity, will attach to him the qualities of the heroes depicted by none but himself [...] For the judgment of the time does not acknowledge that much spiritual depth is needed to illuminate a picture drawn from ignoble life and elevate it into the pearl of creation [...] and that lofty enraptured laughter is worthy of taking its place beside the lofty lyrical impulse.
