I asked readers to tell me, based on the first draft of the book, what lingering questions they still had or what they felt I missed. Logic might seem to indicate that they should set the much shorter course directly for Newfoundland and then head southwards down the US eastern seaboard, eventually to the West Indies. It has often been remarked that discourse in Zola is not just a function of its story. In those early nickelodeon years, the Keystone comedies were considered imcouth; Sunday pulpits fulminated on the vulgarity of their slapstick.
