Aegon II held many advantages in the war, including control of the capital city, the support of the Lord Commander of the Kingsguard and the approval of the High Septon. Committee, to whom it was referred to report, "the naval force necessary, for the protection of the commerce of the United States, against the Algerine corsairs; an estimate of the expense of such a force; and the ways and means for defraying the sai.

The Authority Guide to Publishing Your Business Book: Take Your Business to a New Level by Becoming an Authority in Your Field (Authority Guides Book 4)

I don't know if the author is writing his own fantasies into the plot, but it didn't mesh with me. That leaves no other time.
